The Manila radio broadcasting stations DZH8 and DZH7, known as "The Call of the Orient" and which operate simultaneously on the frequencies 15298 and 9730 kilocycles respectively, were observed today at 22:30 - 22:45 GMT with a religious missionary broadcast in the Russian language which was jammed. The jammer on DZH8 periodically transmitted the identification letters "LL" in morse characters; the jammer on DZH7 emitted no identification letters.
Although no exact direction could be fixed, both jamming signals appeared to emanate from Asiatic USSR.
